Description
Municipal court elections, judges, and procedure, and providing penalties

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The bill makes a number of changes to the operations of municipal courts that may engender both one-time and continuing additional costs to local governments. The bill would permit municipal judges to appoint social workers in some cases. The bill would require a local government to provide an office or other work space to a municipal judge. The bill would require each municipal court to have at least one clerk position. The bill would require construction of a new municipal courtroom if the courtroom is currently located in a police department.
